

2023 WIAA Scholar Athlete Finalist Media Bios

This list includes Scholar Athlete's name, hometown, the high school they attend, and a short bio.

Boys Division 1

Dylan Dettloff, Sheboygan, Sheboygan North High School

Dylan has earned nine varsity letters in swimming and diving, cross country and track and field. The Golden Raider earned three individual sectional championships and received both his team and Fox River Classic Conference swimming and diving MVP award as a senior.

Griffin Empey, Stoughton, Stoughton High School

Griffin has earned 11 varsity letters in football, wrestling and track and field. In addition to winning three individual wrestling sectional championships, he helped the Vikings bring home a team state wrestling championship. He is also a four-time Badger-South All Conference selection.

Drew Regnier, Waunakee, Waunakee High School

Drew has earned seven varsity letters and is a five time Badger-East All Conference honoree, winning an individual track and field state championship in the 400. He is a four-time Warrior MVP in cross country and two time team MVP in track and field.

Tripp Walsh, Hartland, Arrowhead High School

Tripp has earned eight varsity letters in football, basketball and track and field. He helped the Warhawks win back to back team track and field state championships and a team sectional championship in basketball.

Girls Division 1

Grace Grocholski, North Prairie, Kettle Moraine High School

Grace has earned eight letters in volleyball and basketball. She's a four-time first team all conference selection in volleyball, a two-time all conference selection in basketball, and helped lead the Lasers to two basketball state championships.

Paige Miller, Kaukauna, Kaukauna High School

Paige has earned seven varsity letters in volleyball and softball. She received all conference honors in volleyball and helped the Galloping Ghosts to two state champion titles in softball.

Lucy Strey, Cottage Grove, Sun Prairie East High School

Lucy has lettered eight times in golf, basketball and soccer. She has been a member of a conference champion soccer and basketball team and a regional champion golf team.

Dasha Vorontsov, Fitchburg, Oregon High School

A 4.0 student, Dasha earned six varsity letters, four in cross country and two in track and field. She is a four-time all conference cross country selection, a four-time team MVP and was a three-time state qualifier.

2023 WIAA Scholar Athlete Finalist Media Bios

Boys Division 2

Rhett Koenig, Prairie du Chien, Prairie du Chien High School

Rhett is a four-time individual state wrestling champion and was voted back to back Southwest Wisconsin Conference wrestling MVP. He helped his wrestling team win four sectional championships and was a part of the Blackhawks conference championship football team.

Davin Stoffel, Kronenwetter, Mosinee High School

Davin has earned ten varsity letters in football, basketball and baseball. He helped his team win a baseball sectional championship and received back to back Great Northern All Conference honors in both football and basketball.

Tanner Kaufman, Poplar, Northwestern High School

Tanner has earned eight varsity letters in wrestling, football and track and field. He helped his wrestling team earn three conference titles and two football conference championships. He received both team and Heart O' North Conference MVP honors in football.

Brett McConkey, Mindoro, West Salem High School

Brett has earned ten varsity letters in football, basketball and baseball. He helped the Panthers basketball team win the Coulee Conference title four times and was a part of back to back sectional basketball championships teams.

Girls Division 2

Madilyn Dogs, Kewaskum, Kewaskum High School

Madilyn has lettered eight times in volleyball, basketball and track and field. She is a member of a state championship basketball team, has earned all conference honors six times, and was a state finalist in track and field.

Mya Hartjes, Grafton, University School of Milwaukee

Mya has lettered eleven times in cross country, basketball, soccer and track and field. She is a seven-time all conference honoree, state qualifier in both cross country and track and field, and two-time conference basketball MVP.

Joey Perry, Larsen, Winneconne High School

Joey has lettered eleven times in cross country, basketball, and track and field. She helped lead the Wolves to a cross country state championship, has earned eight all conference honors, and was a member of the back to back conference championship track and field team.

Rachel Ulrich, Dresser, Osceola High School

A six-time letter winner in cross country and track and field, Rachel is also a six-time all conference selection. She has three individual cross country sectional championships and has helped the Chieftans to three team conference titles in cross country and one in track.

2023 WIAA Scholar Athlete Finalist Media Bios

Boys Division 3

Landon Deneen, Shell Lake, Shell Lake High School

Landon ranks first in his class and has earned 14 letters across football, soccer, basketball and track and field. He won an individual track and field sectional championship and is a seven-time Lakeland North All Conference selection.

Caden Healy, Athens, Colby High School

Caden has earned eight varsity letters in football, basketball and track and field. He helped the Hornets win a football state championship and earned Marawood Conference MVP football honors. The five-time all conference selection also has a 4.0 grade point.

Jackson Ormond, Stratford, Stratford High School

Jackson has earned ten varsity letters across football, wrestling and baseball. Jackson helped the Tigers win a football state championship title. The four-time Marawood All Conference honoree also won an individual wrestling sectional championship.

Mitchell Thompson, Kewaunee, Kewaunee High School

Mitchell received ten letters across football, wrestling and baseball. He won an individual wrestling sectional championship as a sophomore and an individual state wrestling championship his senior year.

Girls Division 3

Molly Heidorn, Colfax, Colfax High School

Molly has lettered nine times in cross country, basketball, and track and field. She earned all conference honors in cross country and track and helped the Vikings basketball team to a sectional championship.

Lindsay Steien, Taylor, Blair-Taylor High School

First in her class, Lindsay has lettered eleven times in volleyball, basketball and softball. She earned all conference honors eight times and contributed to Wildcat team regional and sectional titles in softball and basketball and is a four-time conference champ in volleyball.

Sophia Lawler, Racine, The Prairie School

Sophia has earned eight letters in golf and basketball. She received all conference honors three times in golf, won four conference and three team golf sectional championships and was a member of the back to back conference championship basketball team.

Reese Rogowski, Wittenberg, Wittenberg-Birnamwood High School

Reese has lettered eleven times in volleyball, basketball, and track and field. She earned all conference honors six times and is a four-time conference champion in volleyball and won back to back individual sectional championships in track and field.

2023 WIAA Scholar Athlete Finalist Media Bios

Boys Division 4

Augustus Fink, Three Lakes, Three Lakes High School

Augustus has earned nine letters in football, wrestling and track and field. He is a four-time Northern Lakes Conference wrestling selection. In track and field, he won an individual and team regional championship as well as back to back team conference championships.

Evan Johnson, Florence, Florence High School

Evan has earned nine letters and is a six-time Northern Lakes Conference selection. He helped the Bobcats win a baseball conference championship while also earning both team and conference MVP honors. As a senior, his team won conference championships in football and basketball.

Evan Payne, Eastman, Seneca High School

Evan has earned nine letters in basketball, football and baseball. He earned four Ridge & Valley Conference selections in basketball and helped his team win conference championships in both football and basketball. He is also first in his class.

Dylan Powell, Norwalk, Brookwood High School

Dylan has earned 11 letters in cross country, wrestling, track and field and baseball. He is a seven-time Scenic Bluffs Conference selection and won two individual regional wrestling and two team regional track and field championships. He is also first in his class.

Girls Division 4

Cristin Casey, Wisconsin Rapids, Assumption High School

Cristin has lettered ten times in cross country, basketball, and softball. She earned five all conference honors and was a member of the Royals state championship teams in both basketball and softball.

Lilly Geary, Viola, Kickapoo High School

Lilly has lettered ten times in cross country, basketball, and track and field. She earned seven all conference honors and helped the Panthers win conference championships in all three sports.

Carleigh Kaczmarek, Oconto Falls, Gillett High School

Carleigh has lettered ten times in cross country, basketball, and track and field. She earned eight all conference honors and was a conference champion in cross country and regional champion in track and field.

Kallie Volk, Three Lakes, Three Lakes High School

Kallie has lettered ten times in cross country, volleyball, basketball, and track and field. She has earned six all conference honors, is a state high jump champion in track and field and helped her basketball team win a sectional title.

(Editor and news directors note: For more information about each finalist, contact his or her school's athletic director. For general award information, contact Elizabeth Knight at elizabeth@aplombpr.com.)